Persistence, Dedication, Goal Oriented Focus

Served as an avenue to develop, display and test my skills in an extremely competitive atmosphere while also instilling valuable life lessons.

- Preparation is essential; being ready for opportunities means rehearsing and having more than one approach in your bag.
- Not everything that goes into a profession will be exciting and fulfilling. It's bound to have its boring and routine parts so it's important to take everything in stride.
- No matter how many years of experience you have, you'll always need to practice, review and improve.
